NASBA Registration

The G&T Accounting and Finance Association is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State Boards of Accountancy have the final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.nasbaregistry.org.

CPE Credit Hours

Participants completing attendance of the 2025 Conference shall receive certification for approximately 18.5 CPE credit hours in the following subject areas: Accounting (1.0), Economics (1.0), Finance (3.5), Information Technology (2.0), Personal Development (1.0), Management Services (1.0), Specialized Knowledge (5.0), Business Management & Organization (2.0), Production (1.0), and Taxes (1.0).

Program Level: Update

Objectives

The objective of the 2025 Annual Conference is to educate and inform participants regarding accounting, finance, tax, and other related matters of current interest to generation and transmission (G&T) electric cooperatives. Upon completion of the Conference, participants will be able to:

- Understand the rating agency outlook for electric coops;
- Gain knowledge on interest rate risk management strategies;
- Gain knowledge about FASB updates;
- Upcoming changes to tax codes;
- Understand Risks and benefits of Nuclear projects;
- Discuss strategic planning; and
- Gain an understanding of large load impacts.

Prerequisites and Experience Level

Attendance will be open to the accounting and finance staff of the Association's member G&Ts and other affiliated organizations (e.g. NRECA). Prior accounting or finance experience with a G&T will be beneficial but not required so as not to exclude new staff members.

Content of the Program

See the 2025 G&T Conference Agenda.

Advance Preparation

None.

Instructional Method

The 2025 Conference will be a group-live offering.

POLICIESRegistration

See the notice for the 2025 Conference.

Payment of Fees

See the notice for the 2025 Conference.

Refunds

Participants will receive a refund in the full amount of the registration fee for any programs cancelled by the Association. The Association does not refund any portion of the registration fees for partial program attendance by participants. A participant may obtain a refund in the full amount of the registration fee if the participant has cancelled their registration prior to the registration date deadline.

Complaint Resolution

For more information regarding administrative policies such as complaint and refund, please contact the G&T Accounting & Finance Association President at 770.270.7240.

Attendance

Participants will be required to complete an attendance record indicating on the form which sessions were attended. The attendance record must then be turned in and verified before the participant leaves the conference.

Certificates

Certificates of completion will be awarded to participants for the number of CPE credit hours actually attended and will indicate a breakdown of the credits earned by the individual subject areas for the completed program.
